ATTACK ON SHANGHAI OPENS

La Follette Forces Win In Wisconsin

Two Extremes

MILWAUKEE, September 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Governor John M. Blaine, candidate for renomination on the Republican ticket, with the endorsement of Senator Fred M. La Follette, won over Arthur Hirtz, his nearest opponent, at yesterday's primary by a plurality estimated to run between 60,000 and 70,000 votes.

Return from 2,262 precincts of 2,675 in the state gave Blaine 100,450; Hirtz, 139,160; Comings, 31,028.

In the race for the nomination for secretary of state Fred Zimmerman, incumbent, endorsed by the senator, had a lead of nearly 65,000 votes over Theodore Damiani. With 1,229 precincts reported the vote stood: Zimmerman, $6,551; Damiani, 25,483; Guy Johnson, 16,053; Francis Davidson, 16,001. Solomon Levitan, incumbent also endorsed by La Follette, was leading Henry Johnson by a wide margin for the Republican nomination for treasurer.

Financier Wins in New Hampshire

MANCHESTER, N. H., September 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Captain John G. Winant, Concord financier, was conceded the Republican nomination for governor at an early hour today by his chief opponent, Major Frank Knox, publisher of the Manchester Union and Leader, when the returns from 247 of the 291 electoral districts gave Winant a plurality of 2,004. The totals were: Winant, 18,896; Knox, 16,612.

The contest between Winant and Knox was one of the most spirited waged in state politics for a number of years. Major Knox in a message of congratulations declared that "the important thing now is to elect the truest Republican ticket and to stand behind Calvin Coolidge and the state standard bearers of the party."

The only district in which the Ku Klux Klan was considered a factor in the election races, returned the Klan candidate in the nomination of William H. Davis, mayor of Rochester, for the sheriff of Monroe county, defeating the incumbent, Frank E. Goodwin.

Governor Fred H. Brown, of Somerville, as the Democratic candidate opposed to Captain Winant will be the first governor of the state in many years to seek a second term and the only one since biennial terms were established.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Money, the all-important commodity without which a national political campaign can hardly be waged is giving the managers of all parties plenty to worry about.

Not only are campaigns more expensive nowadays than they have been but scrutiny of campaign contributions is unusually sharp.

Both John W. Davis and President Coolidge have announced that contributions will be received only with the understanding that they involve no promise to dispense political or governmental favors later on. Mr. Coolidge has gone even a step further in insisting that his campaign management incur no deficit for he realizes that much of the irregularity connected with campaign contributions in the past has occurred after election, when large sums are easily obtained from men who want to be in favor with a new administration. The Democrats who were left with a deficit in 1920 were able to clear it up only after four years of patient effort culminating in their sale of box seats in Madison Square Garden last June.

The Republicans had one of the largest deficits they ever incurred in 1920, after the election of President Harding and it took the personal intervention of Mr. Harding to prevent his removal. It was on one of these counts that the jury failed to agree.

Earlier in his term, other grand juries had investigated his conduct and returned no bills.

He was not a candidate for re-election at the recent primaries.

Resta, Noted Racer, Killed

BROOKLANDS, ENGLAND, Sept. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Dario Resta, famous automobile racing driver, was killed today while attempting to establish a new world's record.

He was killed instantly when his racer plunged through the iron fence bordering the track here. His mechanic, Perkins, escaped with minor injuries.

The car, Resta's Grand Prix Sunbeam, plunged from the track on the straightaway paralleling the railway track during the second lap. The wreckage caught fire and the car was destroyed.

Resta only recently arrived from America.

Resta was one of the best known race drivers in the world. He was entered in several of the sweepstakes at Indianapolis and took part in practically all of the big races in the United States, and on the continent.

He held a number of world's speed records, including the best time for three miles, five miles, 400 miles, 450 miles and 500 miles. His distance records were all made in a Peugeot at Chicago on June 28, 1915.

Coolidge To Speak At Baltimore

WASHINGTON, September 3.—(By the Associated Press)—With enthusiastic reports before him from his campaign manager, William M. Butler, and other political advisers, President Coolidge turned his attention today to work on his next speech to be delivered in Baltimore Saturday morning at the unveiling there of the Lafayette statue. Some consider it likely he will take this occasion to discuss at more length his foreign policies.

The president, meanwhile, has told advisers he considers it inappropriate to discuss political questions in his speech before the Holy Name Society convention here later this month. Negroes Brand K. K. K. On Man's Chest; Victim Near Death

WAUKEGAN, ILLS., September 3.—(By the United Press)—With the letters "K. K. K." branded on his chest, a delirious man thought to be Thomas Stolp, of Cudahy, Wis., was near death at the Lake County Hospital here today. Gallia and Hutchins Scene of Distressing Accident

Mrs. Malissa Branham, wife of the head, face, shoulder and legs. Theodore Branham, former police man and salsy showman of Seize to Trail, near Cole's Boulevard, was struck and seriously injured by an automobile on Gallia street just east of Hutchins this noon as she was returning to the Excelsior shoe factory after having work at the Happy Corner lunch room. Elements and Hutchins streets. She was removed to Hampsied hospital where an examination showed she had sustained a broken leg and broken arm.

Shortly after the accident David Knittle of 1725 Eighth street called in to police Headquarters and said his machine had struck a woman on Gallia street near Hutchins when she stepped out from behind another machine.

Mrs. Branham was dragged a short distance before Knittle could bring his machine to a stop. Other women employees of the Excelsior Shoe Company who witnessed the accident rushed into the factory for aid, but before the factory nurse could get to the scene Mrs. Branham had been placed on Lynn's ambulance stretcher and was ready to be removed to the hospital. There Drs. Ira Martin, J. D. Jordan and T. C. Crawford attended the injured woman and after a careful examination found the broken left leg above the knee, and broken left forearm as the most serious injuries. She also sustained various bruises and lacerations about

About four years ago Mrs. Catherine Rockwell, another daughter of Mrs. Thatcher, was killed by an automobile near her home in the East End. Memory of this accident helped to aggravate the mother's condition this noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Branham are well known throughout the city and have a legion of friends who will be sorry to hear of her serious injuries.

Julius Petersen of John street, enroute to the Tri-State Fair at Raceland, was an eye witness to the accident. He also sustained serious injuries. She also sustained various bruises and lacerations about

Half Million Bond Issue Plan Will Be Before Council This Evening

At tonight's meeting of city council legislation will be presented providing for the placing of a $500,000 city hall bond issue before the electors at the November election. Member Ben Stewart, who two months ago brought before council the need of a new city building, will present the legislation tonight. It will be up to the voters of the city to approve the big bond issue if the plan to give the River City a new city building is to be carried out.

Other important matters to come before council tonight will be the approval of plans for the hospital dormitory.

Decision will also be reached as to what plan will be adopted in providing finances for the furnishing of the hospital addition about ready for use.

Representatives of the Andrews Asphalt Paving Company of Hamilton arrived in the city Wednesday with a force of men and equipment to start on the execution of their contracts with the city to pave parts of the following streets with sheet asphalt: Jackson, Third,

Young Boys Are Missing

Ernest Hamilton, 11 year old son of Robert Hamilton, 2137 Seventh Street and Rupert Lewis, 14, son of John Lewis, 2125 Eighth Street, have been missing since about 8:15 o'clock Monday night when they failed to return home from a picture show. The parents of both lads are greatly worried over the continued absence of the young boys, day and night search by the parents and police failing to produce any trace of the boys. Friends advance the theory that the boys ran away to seek from going to school which begins next week. Parents of the Hamilton boy say that they can hardly believe this theory for their son likes to attend school.

Monday night the Hamilton and Lewis boys with John Lewis, Jr., 8 year old, attended the Strand theatre. On the way home the two older boys left the younger Lewis at the Broadway street railroad crossing. He went directly home and told his mother that Rupert in company with the Hamilton boy, left him on the crossing and started down the railroad track towards Clay street.

No one has been found who saw the boys after they left John Lewis, Jr. The Hamilton boy is of dark complexion and has many freckles. He has brown hair, dark blue eyes, and weighs about 111 pounds. He was barefooted, and wore a light blue shirt. He may be easily identified through an impediment in his speech. The Lewis boy has a fair complexion, is slightly taller than his companion, has black hair, dark blue eyes and wears tennis shoes with stockings. He weighs about the same as Hamilton. He wore dark pants and a blue shirt.

Parents have visited and called the homes of all relatives within a few miles of Portsmouth and word from all is that the boys have not been seen.

WELLSTON, Ohio, September 3.—Mrs. Jenilee Thacker, 40, was a victim of ptomaine poisoning Monday morning at the home of a relative at Rivesville.

Mrs. Thacker and husband and nine children came from Derwent, Ohio, to visit relatives of the husband, driving through. They purchased some bologna for a lunch and after the woman had eaten some of it she became violently ill. Physicians were summoned and all that medical skill could do had no effect and she continued to grow worse and passed away at 6:15 a.m. yesterday, turning the expected happy visit to one of sorrow and gloom.

The deceased was a native of England, Durham County, and had resided in this country since youth. The husband and nine children survived. Mrs. Evelyn Barnett, of Derwent; Mrs. Hazel Doles, of Byers; Ethel, Margaret, Clara, Myrtle, Irene, Ralph and Willard, twins.

The funeral will be held at the Rivesville church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Mulligan and burial at Byer's cemetery by A. B. C. Leach, of this city.

Specials to Meet

Members of the Studebaker Special ball team are requested to be present at a meeting which will be held at the home of Manager Harold Stewart on Fifteenth street, Thursday evening at 7:30.

The Specials will stack up against the Lucasville aggregation next Sunday and the bout will be staged at the arena of the Valley Township Champs.

Specials Wallop Buena Vista Nine

The Studebaker Specials came near wiping the Buena Vista nine off the map when Manager Harold Stewart's Athletes rolled up a regular football score and buried the villagers under a 26 to 4 count.

The winners pounded three pitchers hard, knocking Burnett and Green off the hill while Roberts for the winners held the home team in check all the way.

CANNON BALL Portsmouth, Ironton Huntington

First Limited leaves . . . 6:00 A. M. small but select fields and some neck-and-neck finishes featured the day's program.

The long shot players had a chance to cheer when Rock Court kicked mad in the whiskers of a fast field of sprinters in the fourth race.

Rock Court paid his backers $14.00 for a $2 ticket. He also paid $5.40 to a race and $5.00 to show.

Rock Court, who has been going great guns recently, is the 3-year-old daughter of Trap Rock and Dorothy Court. The filly is the property of Roy H. Mills, a prominent huntington sportsman. Mills has owned Rock Court about a year.

Liberal wagers were all the rage yesterday. Sylvester started off the good work by sliding home in front in the first race with Lucy Churchill and La Derniere finishing in the order-named. Sylvester paid dividends of $7.60 for $2. Reprieve, in the second event, also proved to be a good investment. A $2 ducat on the A. V. Thomas entry was worth $7.00 in the mutuels.

Another "good thing" raced under the wire in the third race when Green Gold and Freeholder and Wilder Willow rugged. Green Gold paid $8.80. The prices being paid at the present meeting are almost as liberal as the odds at Raceland during the big summer meeting in July.

H. Long carried off most of the riding honors yesterday. Long had a leg up on Sylvester in the first race and placed on Pepperette and Freeholder. K. Hongland, S. Talbert and J. Peete each was astride a winner.

From now on the fields will be bigger than usual and some real races will be down for decision.

Following are the race results for yesterday:

First Race, $400 Claiming, three year olds and up, five furlongs.

Sylvester, $7.60; $2.40.

La Derniere, $2.10.

Second Race, $400 Claiming, two year olds. Four furlongs.

Reprieve, $7.60; $2.80.

Pepperette, $3.60.

Woman Victimizes Merchants

Four local merchants, managers of the following stores: The Columbus Meat Market, The United States System Stores, Mueller's Men's Market and The Kroger Store on Gallia street are demanding the fact that they were the victims recently of a woman check forging artist. A check was cashed by each of these merchants for the sum of $10.00 and besides the money a small amount of merchandise was taken. Each check was made out to Albert Weiss and signed by C. E. Howell, contractor.

The woman, it is said, went to the store and bought some article such as potato chips or a bottle of olives and paid for it with the check. According to the merchants she was well dressed and had the appearance of a reliable woman. It was first discovered that the checks were no good when she had just finished cashing one at the United States Store on Gallia street. A woman who had watched the transaction told the manager that she had seen this same woman pass two other checks of the same denomination at two other stores. This immediately aroused suspicion and an investigation showed that the three other stores which had cashed her checks were in the same fix.

The police were notified and made a search for the woman but as yet no one has been found answering the description given by the merchants.

Figures Back Heydler's Claim That Hornsby Outhits Babe Ruth

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—(By the A. P.)—When President John Heydler of the National League proclaimed Rogers Hornsby was a greater batsman than Babe Ruth, the admiring fans of the Cardinals, after a search through the records, discovered to their amazement that Heydler was exactly right. The figures bear out his assertion.

Ruth's admirers throughout the nation, after reading Heydler's words of praise in behalf of the great St. Louis second baseman, no doubt thought the National League president favored Hornsby slightly. The figures revealed today show that for the last four years Hornsby has a grand average of .385 as compared with .365 for the American League star.

The figures show that since joining the Yankees in 1920 Ruth has socked out 231 home runs including those of this season, while Hornsby has connected with 112. The St. Louis star, however, captures the honors in total number of hits, and in doubles and triples.

COOLIDGE TALKS
OVER SITUATION IN WEST WITH BUTLER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—An encouraging report on the political outlook was presented to President Coolidge today by William M. Butler chairman of the national committee. After a long conference between them it was said that Mr. Coolidge would participate in the campaign as he has to date making occasional speeches.

The president told friends he expected to speak from time to time but he also was represented as believing that the duties of his office required his presence in Washington throughout the campaign.

Mr. Butler came here from Chicago where he has surveyed the political situation from many angles for the past three weeks.

"The Wisconsin situation is showing more satisfactory every day," he said, "and Minnesota is in good shape. We realize that we are invading the enemy country in going into Wisconsin, but we now have our own organization and with division in the radical party find our efforts amply repaid."

SAFE WRECKERS ENTER FIVE PLACES
CLEVELAND, Sept. 3.—Safe wreckers entered five places here early today, in two of which they obtained $10,000. They were unable to penetrate the strong boxes in the other two. One thousand dollars was obtained from the store of Jack Spencer and the balance from a Brooks Oil company station.

LIEUT. PEARSON, AIR RACE ENTRANT, IS KILLED IN FALL

DAYTON, O., Sept. 3.—Lieut. Alex Pearson one of the flyers entered in the Pulitzer race in the International air races to be held here in October, was killed at Wilbur Wright Field when his plane collapsed in midair over the field about 7:15 o'clock tonight.

Lieut. Pearson was making his usual daily test flight with the speedy navy Curtiss racer in preparation for the race and at the time of the accident was flying 300 feet from the ground at a speed estimated at more than 200 miles an hour. He had been in the air 15 minutes.

Suddenly, according to watchers, the left wing of the plane collapsed and the ship struck the ground at a terrific speed, splintering into bits. The aviator's body was found nearly 10 yards from the plane. Practically every bone in his body was broken.

CAMPAIGN MACHINERY OF OHIO POLITICAL PARTIES IN OPERATION

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 3.—The machinery of the two major political campaigns in Ohio was officially set in motion today.

Newly-elected chairman of the Republican and Democratic state central committees took over the reins of their respective parties, assuming active charge of party headquarters in preparation for the fall campaigns.

Fred W. Warner, Marion, Republican chairman, learned of his new position only two days ago and came down from Marion just as soon as he returned from an automobile tour of the east. He said today that the Republicans expect to raise a campaign fund of approximately $200,000.

Tom Drye, Urbana, new Democratic chairman, was busy opening state headquarters here and said active campaign work would start within a few days. The Democratic estimate they should raise in the neighborhood of $50,000 with which to put their ticket across in the November elections.

ASK STOCKHOLDERS TO APPROVE PROPOSED VAN SWERINGEN MERGER

CLEVELAND, Sept. 3.—Formal proposal for consolidation of the Nickle Plate, Chesapeake & Ohio, Hocking Valley, Erie and Pere Marquette railroads, have been mailed to stockholders of the five roads by O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen.

The plan calls for organization of a new company, with total authorized capital stock of $344,805,320, to acquire all the railways and properties of the five roads.

This will be accomplished either through acquisition of a majority of capital stock or negotiation of 999-year leases.

The Van Sweringen plan has been approved by directors of all five roads and its consummation will result in creation of the third largest trunk line system in the east.

In a voice that was almost a shout, McCoy spoke the words "not guilty" when the murder charge was read.

To each of the other charges McCoy also entered his denial.

The Nervous Wreck

by E.J. Rath

1924 - 17 Full Service

BEGIN HERE TODAY

The "Nervous Wreck" is a nervous young man, is SALLY, his father's maid, to the scene when they run out of gasoline at the point of a gun. The Wreck takes five gallons from a passing car.

Lester Charles McNease, foreman of ranch along the route, finds the Wreck's car taken off a road, and sees Sally to set it back on. Then they discover that Mr. Underwood, the owner of the ranch, was in the car which they had left. Sheriff Bob Wells, Sally's fiancé, is unwillingly persuaded to the conclusion for the "benefit" who held up Underwood. After several failed efforts, Sally and the Wreck finally succeed in making an escape in their own car. Now they come to a rocky trail which turns to the left.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Well we try it," she panted.

"Did it?"

He turned the flivver at a sharp angle and they left the main road. The two girls began climbing a rise inmediately when dropped into a path.

The Wreck found himself forced to drive with care, for there were sharp rocks every few yards.

"There are lots of these old roads in "Turn them on!" commanded Sally. "We're caught anyhow, and I'm not going to be powered on in the dark."

He turned the lights on again, and they waited. The footsteps were cautious, but they were still approaching.

"Put that gun away," she whispered, as she saw him trembling with it. "It's not loaded and you'd only get us into trouble. You can't run that kind of a bluff off Bob Wells, anyhow."

"Who?"

"Who else? Why, it's almost certain. Go all the way! We're run into him! You let me do the talking, Harry Williams."

The footsteps were nearer.

CHAPTER XXI

Captured

Just as Sally's fingers were digged into his arm until he was ready to crawl a person's voice came from the bushes beside the car: "You better get me right up in the air—quick!"

Sally raised her hands promptly, and the Wreck followed suit after the commanding him.

Into the back glare of the headlights stepped a man who carried a rifle that looked ready for work.

"One of 'em's a woman," he called, evidently addressing somebody behind him.

There was no answer from the rear.

It seemed that the matter of conversation had been left wholly in his hands.

"Well take the pedigree," said the man with the rifle. "Any relation to the sheriff?"

"Plenty of relation," said Sally, promptly. "We want to see him."

There was a chuckle by way of answer.

"Sure you're lookin' for the sheriff?" he inquired. "I kind of figure he's asleep and don't want to be disturbed."

"You lead me to Bob Wells," said Sally.

"I'm going to step right out of this car, and if you start anything with that gun you'll wish you'd never been born."

The Wreck followed her, and they stood beside the flivver, with a rifle muscle not more than a yard distant from them.

"I'll talk to Bob Wells and nobody else," declared Sally firmly.

"Are you speakin' serious?"

"I certainly am. And I'd advise you not to argue about it."

He muttered something that she could not hear, yet it conveyed the idea that his mind was in doubt. The Wreck remained passive during the colloquy. He did not heed Sally's caution. Whatever might be required of him, he felt that the time was not yet. Besides, he was sure that Sally had the right idea. There was no need for dealing with subordinates when Bob Wells was on the ground. He was quite willing to face the sheriff.

"Lead me to the sheriff," said Sally.

There was a suppressed laugh from the figure that held the rifle.

"I'll lead you," he said. "Come to think of it, I figure you'd better lead yourself. You just head for that campfire and I'll keep walking behind you. And don't forget I'm carrying gun. Not that it makes any difference to me."

The third man climbed out of his blankets and followed Nosey. They went beyond earshot. The guard motioned Sally and the Wreck to seats on the ground and placed himself opposite them at a little distance, his back against a tree. The rifle lay ready in his hand.

"I'm afraid we've blundered," whispered Sally.

but it might make a heap of difference to you."

Sally set off in the lead, stumbling through the brush to the direction of the camp. She was angry enough to shout what she wanted to say to Bob Wells, but she would not spoil the dramatic effect of a face-to-face meeting.

The Wreck followed in her wake, grim.

It was a very small, disorderly and informal sort of camp. Sally discovered as soon as she put foot within the glow of dying embers. There was no tent; there was no sign of an establishment that contained even ordinary comforts.

But there were two men with rifles in their hands sitting up in their blankets and smoking the smokers with hard cores.

"Well, who you got there, Lefty?" inquired one of the men on the ground.

"Parole lookin' for the sheriff," observed Lefty, with a somewhat exaggerated wink.

"Just the two of 'em?"

"Just them."

The attack of questions arose to his feet for a better survey of the visitors. He was a large man and his most conspicuous feature was a broken nose.

Sally raised her hands promptly, and the Wreck followed suit after the commanding him.

There was no answer from the rear.

It seemed that the matter of conversation had been left wholly in his hands.

Enjoys Fine Camping Trip

Captain Carey Williams, of the West Side, his mother and sister returned Monday from a three weeks' motor trip through the eastern and northern part of the country.

While on their trip Capt. Williams stated they visited Washington, New York and many Canadian cities. He said that they stopped at night as much as possible at the tourist's camps in that section of the country, which was one of the most enjoyable parts of the trip, for while there one meets persons from all sections of the country and exchanges experiences.

"The trip is one that will long be remembered," Capt. Williams said, "and I wish that I could take another like it next year."

Mr. and Mrs. Guy V. Williams Leave Thursday for Miami

After a most pleasant two weeks visit with their old friends in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Guy V. Williams and son Guy Jr., will leave Thursday for their home in Miami, Florida. They will go to Cincinnati, where they will stay a few days with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams have spent a busy two weeks in Portsmouth, having been entertained "morning, noon and night" mostly literally by their friends here.

Mr. Williams, who is a member of the Kiwanis club of Miami, was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Portsmouth Kiwanis club last week, and took for the subject of his address "Miami".

Mr. Williams is a fluent talker and he described the wonders of the "Miracle City" so well that the already favorable impression here concerning that "Playground of Eastern United States," was augmented.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were also guests of honor at last week's meeting of the Exchange Club at Crystal Springs, followed by a dance at Lighthouse Beach. Mr. Williams gave a short talk to the Exchangeites, and, being from Miami, did not allow the Exchangeites to remain in ignorance of the wonders of the southern city.

This is the first visit of Mr. and Mrs. Williams to their old home in several years, and their coming has helped to enliven social activities during the "between seasons" period.

Around the Circuit

NEW YORK, Sept. 3—Brooklyn, John Alden of the National League, has abandoned its suit to Miss Pennant for the Giants and is speaking for itself.

Throughout the season the Flatbush representatives reluctantly lost game after game to their Manhattan neighbor; on the last western trip after the Pirates had taken four straight from McGraw's team the Robins temporarily blocked the path of McKechnie's men by inflicting three defeats.

But still the Giants were bachelors; the bold corsair pressed his suit insistently and Brooklyn, heedng the urging of Dazzy Vance, began to speak for itself. The Robins have won 21 of the last 25 games played, have picked nine contests off the Giant job in three weeks and are today only two contests behind the leaders and one back of Pittsburgh in second.

Familiarly considered as tall to Dazzy Vance's kite, the Robins yesterday reversed the arrangement by batting out a 12 to 9 victory after the Phillies had knocked Vance from the box in one inning. The tent temporarily preserved Dazzy's string of victories from interruption. Hollingsworth, a recruit, held the Phillies to five hits and won the second game 4 to 3.

The Giants exchanged blows with Boston. Cooney beat them 7 to 3 in the first game but McQuillan held the Braves to five hits in the second for a 10 to 2 victory.

The Pirates and Cubs were restrained by rain at Pittsburgh. St. Louis and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

Washington, after winning 14 of its last 17 starts, rested yesterday but the Yankees remained a game and a half behind the Senators by splitting a double header with the Red Sox, losing the first 14 to 8, and winning the second, 5 to 2.

Ruth retired from the second game with lame arm but the difficulty is not serious.

Detroit virtually fell out of the race seven games back of Washington by dropping two to the tail end White Sox, who almost climbed out of the cellar. The scores were 6 to 2 and 3 to 5.

Cleyleland drove Shaeffer off the mound and won a 12 to 4 verdict over the Browns.

BEWARE OF "CUTOFF"
Motor truck drivers seem to take no heed to the warning issued some time ago by Chief of Police Horace Arthur, cautioning them against using cutouts in the city limits.

Traffic Officer Charles Cleave yesterday arrested a man giving his name as John Lander, for driving a truck and violating this ordinance.

Sande Better

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., September 3—(By the Associated Press)—Earl Sande, premier American jockey, who was injured in a spill at the Saratoga race track August 6, was removed today to New York on board the private car of Harry F. Sinclair, owner of the Rancocosa racing stable, by which Sande was employed. The jockey's condition is greatly improved. He will receive treatment in Roosevelt Hospital.

Accepts Position

WEST UNION, Sept. 3—Miss Edna Ruth McManus will leave Thursday for Girard, Missouri, where she has accepted the position of instructor of piano at the Southeastern State Teachers' College.

Miss McManus is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McManus. She is an accomplished musician, a graduate of Wooster College, with an A. B. in 1921.

Feel Older Than You Are?

ARE you lame and stiff; worn out and dispirited; dragging around day after day with throbbing backache and sharp stabs of pain?

All too often this condition is due to a slowing up of the kidneys which allows body poisons to accumulate and upset the whole bodily machinery. Then comes constant backache, stabbing rheumatic twinges, headaches, dizziness, nervousness and annoying bladder irregularities.

Get rid of these aches and pains! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

Here is Portsmouth Proof:

Leno Kirkendoll, prop., second hand store, 123 Jefferson St., says: "I couldn't stoop to lift the least thing without having a sharp, knife-like pain through my back. When I did stoop I could hardly straighten again, my back was so weak. I felt worn out and was easily tired. My kidneys did not act right. I purchased Doan's Pills at Brandt's Drug Store and the trouble left me. Doan's cured me."

Charming New Gloves for Fall Are Ready, Too.

Open All Day Thursday

The Anderson Bros. Co.

Ready Now--An Impressive Collection of New Fall Modes.

HE Wheel of Fashion Turns—And behold, the New Fall Mode enters resplendent in simplicity and consummate beauty. Now, at Anderson's Fashion Departments you may be assured of seeing the most distinctive models of the new season. Advance Notes of the Fall Symphony of Fashions—new designs—new colorings—new fabrics.

About Coats---

Sumptuous fur give added dignity to the soft suede-like fabrics that are so new and so very popular for fall and winter. Oftimes this trimming appears only upon the collar. Again, upon collar and cuffs are heavy bands of Kolinsky, Squirrel, Fitch-Beaver or Fox.

The straight silhouette remains supreme, as does the graceful wrap-around feature. Sleeves strike a new note with their bell shapes.

A magnificent collection of just these kinds of coats are here, priced from $65.00 to $250.00.

The New Frocks--

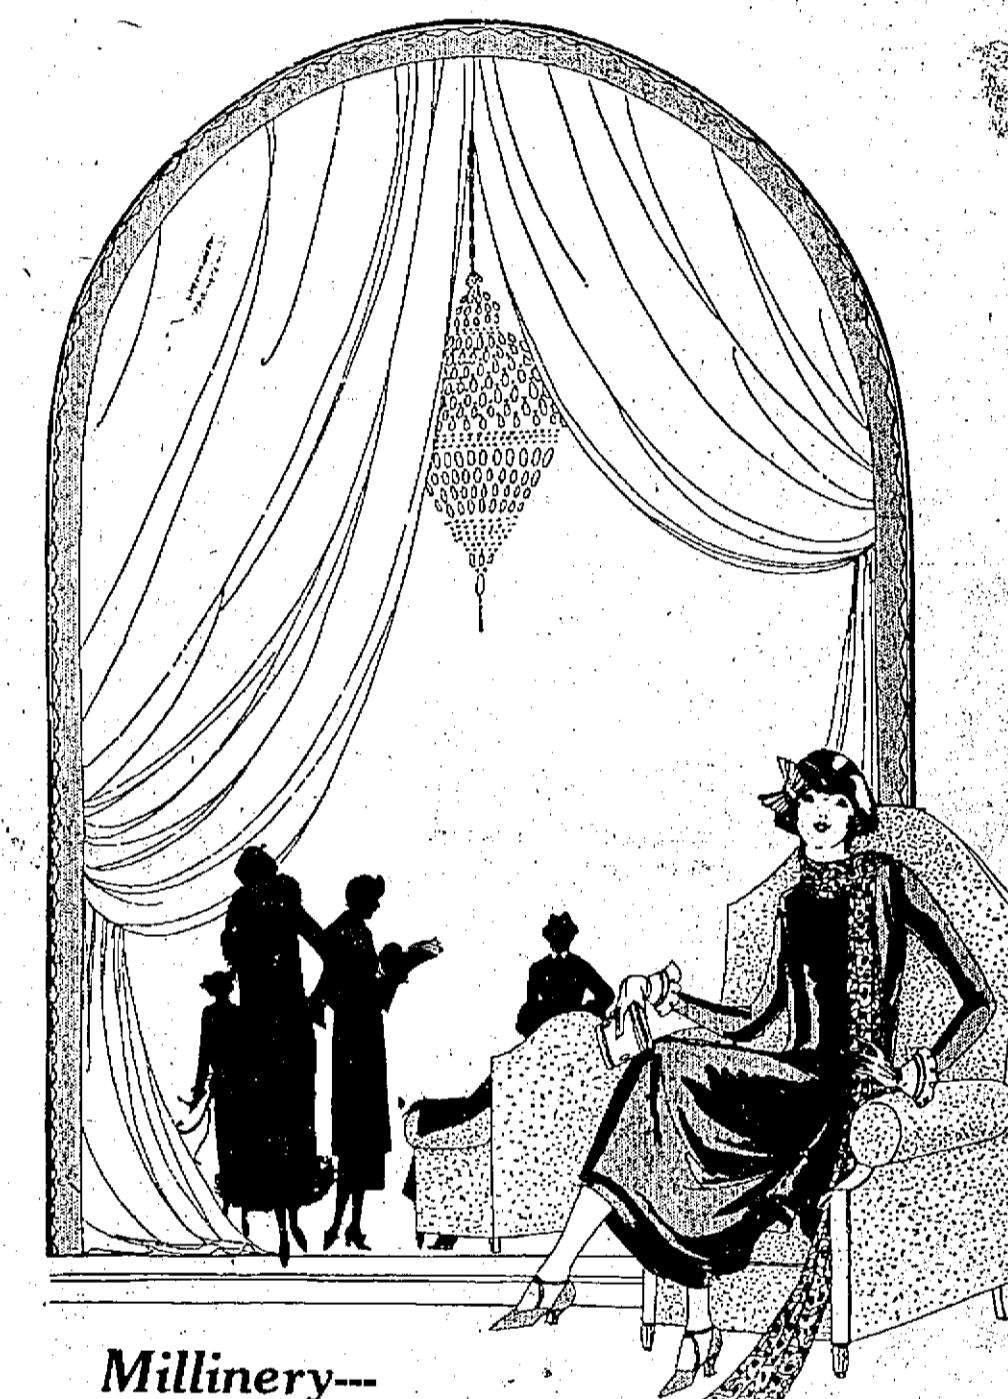

To those who love the tailored frock, Fall Fashions offer lovely models. Here are dresses of Bengaline, Faille, Rep, Charmeuse, Hairline Twills and plain Twill Cords trimmed most effectively with braid, buttons (many, many of them) and hand or machine embroidery.

Satin Canton, Chenille Brocade, heavy Canton Crepe as well as Faille and Bengaline are the bases of the charming party and afternoon frocks. Clever appliques of Cretonne, Ribbonized Braid embroidered in floral motifs and Fringes are used in myriads of new and charming ways to add charm. Prices are $25 to $95.

And Sport Coats--

Are gorgeous in daring plaids that rival the lovely colorings of Fall itself. Some have luxurious collars and cuffs of fur while in others the beauty of the heavy novelty fabrics is trimming enough.

Stripes, too, are in order in beautiful bands of softly harmonizing Fall colors. Priced as low as $25.

Millinery--

The square crown succeeds the cloche in popular favor. Whether it be of felt or satin or taffeta, the smartest hat of best dressed women will be nearly square in crown.

Colors are complementary to Fall with a new shade of purple meeting with extreme favor.

New Colors

Black leads, closely followed by brown in varying shades. Color is obtained by trimming which is usually in marked contrast to the shade used in the garment.

Five Prisoners Make Getaway From Calaboose at Russell, Ky., While City Officials Hold Meeting

Woman Used Flashlight To See If Boarder On Neighbor's Porch Was Drunk; Row Results

Mrs. Hattie Nunley, 2008 Eighth street, when in Municipal court, Tuesday, pleaded not guilty to charges of impersonating an officer made in complaints filed by James Moran and Mrs. Bell Ach, 2012 Eighth street, and after hearing from both sides, Judge Sprague continued the case until Sept. 9 for additional evidence and to give Mrs. Ach an opportunity to refute counter charges leveled by Mrs. Nunley at her accuser. On the stand in her own behalf Mrs. Nunley declared Mrs. Ach was running a disorderly house by allowing her daughters to entertain men at their home all hours of the day and night.

The bearing disclosed that the complaints against Mrs. Nunley grew out of an incident which occurred one night recently when she flashed a light on Moran, a boarder, while he was on the porch of the Ach home, in an effort to ascertain if he was intoxicated. Some words followed during which it was claimed Mrs. Nunley declared that she was an officer and authorized to make arrests.

Soaked for Stealing Gun, Also For Toting It; Other Police Court News

Ben Mailor, 20, negro, was fined $25 and costs and sent to jail for ten days by Judge Sprague in Municipal court yesterday for stealing a revolver and then was sentenced $100 and costs and sent to jail for sixty days for toting the weapon.

Others penalized were: Albert Daugherty, negro, drunk and disorderly; Charles Johnson, negro, drunk; Herbert Bibbs, negro, drunk and disorderly; Floyd Neaman, drunk; Morgan McGra, drunk; Lewis Patrick, drunk; Ed Nichols, drunk; H. W. Dick, drunk; Joseph Steppin, drunk and Tom Christie, drunk.

Virginia Caldwell, colored, who was charged with disorderly conduct was dismissed for lack of convincing evidence.

John Tursey, appeared to answer a complaint filed by his wife but when she failed to appear the case was passed.

Mabel Fitzgerald and Marie Lindon, of Hill street, were fined $5 and costs each for fighting, while Margaret Preston was dismissed when the evidence showed she had no hand in the melee.

Tim Knowles, Third street man, charged with assault was dismissed and the complainant, William Conrad, was given some good advice by the court about keeping a still tongue. The court was of the opinion that Knowles was justly provoked into striking Conrad when the latter made an ugly remark about Tim Knowles, it was claimed.

Albert Smith, Fred Yelchin and Willard Justice, a trio of young men charged with larceny in connection with the alleged theft of C. W. Wig-

RUSSELL, KY., Sept. 3.—(Special to the Times)—A bomb exploding in a Quaker meeting would not have caused any more excitement than the news that flashed into the Council chamber during a meeting of that august body last night that prisoners from the village jail were walking out of the place and making a bee-line for the Ohio river. A hurried trip to the jail revealed the fact that five prisoners had suddenly taken their departure, one not liking his chances in the mayor's court. The majority of the prisoners were under arrest on intoxication or other minor charges.

An investigation disclosed the fact that the lock on the jail door had been broken from the inside. It is thought that someone on the outside slipped the prisoners a large iron bar with which they could easily break open the lock on the door.

No trace was found of the five men last night, search being made in Russell, Ashland, Huntington and Ironton. Today the search was extended to Point-mouth. The village jail is a small building but has served well its purpose in the past. The affair of last night though will no doubt cause Council to take some action whereby stronger locks will be placed on the jail so that in the future sessions of that body will not be disturbed by the news that prisoners are walking away.

A neighbor woman residing near the jail spread the alarm of the jail, delivery last night after she noticed the quintet slip out the jail door and wend their way with quickening steps towards the bank of the Ohio river.

PRINCE ENJOYS DRAG HUNT

STOSSET, N. Y., September 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Two hundred guests from the Long Island Society colony appeared at the Meadowbrook Club this morning at five o'clock to follow the Prince of Wales in a drag hunt arranged by the Drag Association of the club. The length of his scheduled day apparently will make up for the shortness of his day yesterday when he slept far into the afternoon after dancing at the home of Devereaux Milburn, member of the American Polo team, until 5 a. m.

The prince, whose official mantle has made him appear far different from other tourists, in direct contrast to his own wishes, became as any other traveler yesterday when he dashed off a letter late in the afternoon to "the folks" King George and Queen Mary.

Jack was busy today playing a leading part in greeting the 83 round ladies who are aspirants for the Little "Miss America" in the annual beauty pageant here, but "took time out" long enough to deny rumors that he is engaged to Miss Estelle Taylor, moving picture actress.

"There is nothing in the line of an engagement between Miss Taylor and myself—not yet," Dempsey said. "Miss Taylor has a long contract with the pictures and I have my fighting to look after, so I couldn't marry her for at least a year if I was engaged."

Dempsey spent last week-end visiting Miss Taylor at her home in Custer, Pa., and despite the denial of matrimonial intentions at present every indication points to the fact that the motion picture actress will some day be Mrs. Dempsey.

"There is nothing in the line of an engagement between Miss Taylor and myself—not yet," Dempsey said. "Miss Taylor has a long contract with the pictures and I have my fighting to look after, so I couldn't marry her for at least a year if I was engaged."

Dempsey spent last week-end visiting

Miss Taylor at her home in Custer, Pa., and despite the denial of matrimonial intentions at present every indication points to the fact that the motion picture actress will

Friendly Tip To Housewives COFFEE ADVANCES

Despite every effort on the part of Sorority Coffee roasters the price per pound will advance on September 6th.

Many circumstances--beyond human control--make necessary this increase. Internal revolution in Brazil and the Beetle-Flag (an insect which completely destroys coffee trees) have played a large part in further lowering an already short coffee crop. Then, too, the coming coffee crop has suffered from an early frost.

So in order to maintain Sorority quality the roasters are compelled to make a price advance.

But a large portion of the additional cost will be shared by the roasters because they feel it their duty to share with the consumer in this unavoidable increase.

Meanwhile the increase is not effective until September 6th, so that Sorority drinkers may have an opportunity to take advantage of the present price.

Notice to Retail Grocers

Sorority Coffee will advance in price on September 6th. Call your wholesaler today so that you may be able to take advantage of the present price.

OBITUARY

Friederika Margarete Buehler Leist
Friederika Margarete Buehler was born in New York City March 30, 1856, and died at Denver August 28, 1924, aged 68 years 4 months and 28 days. She was married to Jacob Leist January 8, 1874. To them were born seven children. Two of them, Mrs. Omer Davis and Edward Leist, and the husband preceded her in death.

She was only two years old when her parents moved from New York to Beaver. She often spoke of the fact that she was the oldest settler here and could well recall the early history of this little town of which she was so proud.

She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and a charter member of the Ladies' Aid Society, of which she was one of its most loyal attendants. When she could entertain the society at luncheon she was supremely happy.

No mother ever enjoyed working for her children more than she. In her home and family her greatest interest was centered. "To one and to all she was a devoted mother."

The duration of her illness did not exceed two weeks and was not thought to be serious until she was stricken by apoplexy last Thursday morning. Every attention was given to the Angel of Death took her to that eternal home to which all good mothers go.

To young and to old she was familiarly known as "Mom Leist," and by that name she will be remembered.

Five children, 15 grandchildren, two brothers, a sister, and a host of relatives and friends bear the loss. The children are George Leist, of Columbus; Mrs. Emma Becker, of Beaver; Mrs. Erie Nutt, of Beaver; Mrs. John Rheinfuss, of Picketon, and Mrs. Edwin Hays, of Columbus; John Buehler, of Beaver, and Charles Buehler, of Ceredo, W. Va., are the surviving brothers, and Mrs. Kate Hoff, of Newport, Ky., the sister.

Jacob Berndt
Local friends have received word of the death of Jacob Berndt of Fennimore, Wisconsin, at one time a resident of Lawrence county and who had many relatives and friends in that and Scioto county.

In his early manhood he went to Wisconsin, where he located. Some ten years later he was married to Miss Caroline Born. Their union was blessed with one daughter, Dorothy. Early in May of this year Mr. Berndt found his health failing and was unable to take up his usual summer work. His illness was such that he was able to be up and about most of the time, but gradually his strength failed him and he quietly slipped away while resting Tuesday morning, August 12.

He leaves to mourn his death his wife, his daughter Dorothy, her husband, two grandchildren, three brothers and other relatives and friends.

Aaron Bonser.

The following from a Pana (Ill.) paper is of interest here as Mr. Bonser was a native of the Sciotoville community. Mrs. Emma Durenbeck and Mrs. Lucretia Bonser Sawyer and the Cunningham families of Sciotoville are cousins of the deceased.

"Aaron Bonser, highly respected retired farmer and one of the oldest residents of this section, having resided on a farm two miles west of Tower Hill for many years, died suddenly at his home Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Heart failure, coupled with old age was given as the cause of his death.

Mr. Bonser and his estimable wife only August 6 observed informally their golden marriage anniversary at their home by receiving a large number of callers in the afternoon from two to five o'clock. On that occasion he was in his usual fair health, although he has been under the care of a physician for some months. He was in Pana Thursday afternoon, but upon arriving home was suddenly stricken and passed away.

Aaron Bonser was born at Sciotoville, Ohio on December 5, 1846, and died at his home on August 21, 1924. He was 77 years, eight months and 16 days old.

His father died when he was two years old. In 1864 he came with his mother to Shelby county, Illinois, settling temporarily near Shelbyville. Becoming old enough to enlist, he volunteered for service in the Union Army and became a member of Company H and the Third Illinois Cavalry. After a short period in the south, his regiment was sent to the northwest to subdue the Sioux Indian uprising of that time. When mustered out at the close of the war he and his mother moved to a place north of Tower Hill and soon after bought the place upon which he has lived for more than half a century. The first house on the place was a two-story log cabin.

Mr. Bonser was a member of the Protestant Methodist church, but as this church discontinued its organization later, he became an attendant and more recently a member of the Methodist Episcopal church at Tower Hill. That he lived a Christian life, those who knew him as a friend can testify by remembering the cheerful service which he was always ready to give to the utmost of his ability."

"The Bonser family was one of the original settlers of Sciotoville. Over a century ago they conducted a flour mill at the junction of Bonser Run and the Little Scioto river.

Mrs. Eva Paris

WEST UNION, Sept. 3—Mrs. Eva Paris passed away at her home in the east end of West Union Tuesday morning about ten o'clock. Mrs. Paris had been in poor health for the past three months, but was recovered sufficiently to be able to be out. She suffered a relapse and passed away within a few hours. Mrs. Paris was well known in West Union and had many friends in the homes where she had served. She was a member of the Wamley Chapel and was regular attendant at the church when her health permitted. She leaves her husband, John Henry Paris, one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Newman of Morrisstown and one son in the hospital for feeble-minded in Columbus.

Henry C. Bryan
WELLSTON, Ohio, September 3.—Henry C. better known as "Sug" Bryan, 71, died Monday morning at 1:25 o'clock September 1, 1924, at his home on Minnesota avenue, from an illness that covered a long period.

The deceased was one of the best-known men in the city and followed furnacing when in health. The last work he did was at the Wellston furnace which closed down just about a year ago.

A widow and six children survive.

BRIDGE CAMPAIGN IS NEARING GOAL

Subscriptions received in this morning's mail brought the total amount now pledged to the Portsmouth Bridge Co. to $233,900, leaving $16,100 to be raised before the $300,000 goal is reached. One subscription received today was from McDermott, from a business man who feels that the bridge across the Ohio at this point will be a tremendous asset to this whole section and will within a few years pay high dividends. The letter asked also for number of subscription blanks, as other residents of that vicinity have expressed a desire to invest in the project.

"While letters like these are coming in it seems manifestly unfair to close the books to the public," Manager Adam Frick of the Chamber of Commerce said this morning. "Although our chairman, D. A. Grimes, had set tonight at midnight as the tentative date for closing the active campaign, and allowing the stock now unsubscribed to be taken in large blocks by outside business interests we have determined to wait a day or two and allow those who are eager to invest to take advantage of this last minute opportunity."

The "Clean-up Committee" from the Chamber of Commerce is now actively engaged in seeing prospective subscribers who were out of town during the month of August, and the reports of the next two or three days are expected to put the proposition over the top. Many Portsmouth families that have been away for the summer are now returning for the opening of school next week, and it is felt at headquarters, or a telephone message to 228 will bring them in to meet the subscriber's door.

A-Frock with a normal waist line, a shoulder cape, a tailored costume with wide lapels, a touch of plaid for trimming and a hat with a high crown and a saucy cockade are all modes that reflect the Directoire influence. Many examples of the Directoire modes may be found in our advance display of Fall modes.

"Pop" Geers Dangerously Injured In Race At West Virginia State Fair

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 3.—(By the United Press)—Edward "Pop" Geers, popular American harness race driver, was seriously injured when his horse stumbled in the State Fair grounds track here this afternoon.

The veteran driver, now 70 years old, was thrown from his sulky when his horse went down in the second heat of the second race on the State Fair program. He was unconscious when picked up on the track and was taken immediately to Ohio Valley General Hospital.

Physicians said a preliminary examination indicated that Geers' neck may have been broken.

When Geers landed on the track, his horse, My Lady Guy, stepped on his chest. He suffered cuts on the face and it was believed his skull was fractured and that he had been injured internally.

Geers was in second place when the accident occurred.

Nine Year Old Thief Puzzles Police

According to the lad's own story, he entered the shop when there was no one in it, found the money hidden and he was released on his promise.

S. P. Gilbert New Agent General Of Dawes Plan

PARIS, September 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Seymour Parker Gilbert, Jr., former American under-secretary of the treasury, has accepted the post of agent general of the reparations under the Dawes plan. The post is being temporarily filled by Owen D. Young, of New York, who aided General Dawes and the other experts in drawing up the plan.

Mr. Gilbert's appointment will be officially announced by the reparation commission at a meeting this afternoon. He is due to arrive in Paris about the middle of the month.

Mr. Young will return on the 14th from Berlin where he is going today. He intends to meet the commission for railway debentures here at that time to arrange with them the particulars of the payments to be made to the agent general and Mr. Gilbert is expected here in time to take part in this conference.

Rufus Dawes, who goes with Mr. Young to Berlin, is to be placed by him in charge of the Berlin office of the organization carrying out the Dawes plan.

Mr. Young remarked before leaving on his trip that Germany's payment of twenty million gold marks yesterday spoke more effectively than any words of his.

The temporary agent general is now drawing a staff from the reparation commission which will be adequate for his work during the period of transition, the length of which depends upon when the German loan is floated. Literally thousands of Americans have applied for posts in the new reparation organization, either through the state department, to the reparation commission or to Mr. Young, Mr. Dawes and others connected with the execution of the plan.

Several Americans of position at home who happened to be in Europe or who have come here for this purpose, have offered their services without either pay or expense allowances.

The banks are offering to cash any drafts on the agent general's office without formality.

Seymour Parker Gilbert, Jr., is but 31 years old and unmarried. By profession a lawyer, he became interested in governmental financial matters in 1918, when he was made a member of the war loan staff in the office of the secretary of treasury acting as counsel in matters pertaining to the raising of funds for the prosecution of America's part in the great war.

In June, 1920, he was nominated by President Wilson for the post of assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of fiscal affairs. He was re-appointed in March, 1921, and served until June of that year, following which he became under-secretary of the treasury, continuing in that position until November of last year.

Democrats Encouraged Over Outlook In The West

(By FRASER EDWARDS)

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, September 3.—(By the United Press)—John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate, today set out to show the west that he is a Democrat in every sense of the word.

This line of attack was adopted on the advice of George E. Brennan, Democratic boss of Illinois. Davis was told that he cannot expect to carry Illinois or any of the western states unless he creates the impression that he is really a man of the people.

The Brasharts' equipment consisted of a tent, two spring beds, a cooking stove and apparatus and ice box, and the necessary bedding.

Camping is the great out-of-doors popularity with Americans, and the Brasharts report that the people one meets on such a jaunt are delightful company.

The most cheering news given to Davis by the stream of mid-western leaders here was information regarding the Democratic organization in the west.

So far as the west is concerned, he was told, the Democratic machine is intact and Senator LaFollette is making greater inroads on the Republican party than the Democratic party.

Davis will attempt to take advantage of this situation in his mid-western speeches, the first of which is at Omaha on September 6, on the agricultural problem. This same subject will be amplified in a speech at Des Moines on September 7.

Democratic leaders were greatly encouraged over the situation in Iowa and the west generally as a result of the Des Moines data, which was arranged by Edwin T. Meredith, former secretary of agriculture, who turned down the Democratic vice presidential nomination in New York. With Meredith on the Davis band wagon, leaders believe that thousands of Democrats who were disgruntled over defeat of McAdoo will return to the fold.

Mr. Young will return on the 14th from Berlin where he is going today. He intends to meet the commission for railway debentures here at that time to arrange with them the particulars of the payments to be made to the agent general and Mr. Gilbert is expected here in time to take part in this conference.

Rufus Dawes, who goes with Mr. Young to Berlin, is to be placed by him in charge of the Berlin office of the organization carrying out the Dawes plan.

Mr. Young remarked before leaving on his trip that Germany's payment of twenty million gold marks yesterday spoke more effectively than any words of his.

The temporary agent general is now drawing a staff from the reparation commission which will be adequate for his work during the period of transition, the length of which depends upon when the German loan is floated. Literally thousands of Americans have applied for posts in the new reparation organization, either through the state department, to the reparation commission or to Mr. Young, Mr. Dawes and others connected with the execution of the plan.

Several Americans of position at home who happened to be in Europe or who have come here for this purpose, have offered their services without either pay or expense allowances.

The banks are offering to cash any drafts on the agent general's office without formality.

Hanged For Murder of Sweetheart

LONDON, September 3.—(By the United Press)—Patrick Mahan was hanged at nine a. m. today for the murder of Emily Kaye in his bungalow on Eastbourne Beach last April.

Mahan, according to evidence at his trial, entertained a number of other women in the bungalow, which was in a lonely and secluded spot, while the body of Miss Kaye, his former sweetheart, was stuffed in a closet. He murdered the girl during a quarrel after she had demanded that he marry her.

SHOT BY HIS BROTHER

ALLIANCE, O., September 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Foster Johnson, Jr., son of Ellsworth Johnson, Stark Electric Railway dispatcher, was fatally shot when his younger brother Wayne accidentally pulled the trigger of a .32 caliber revolver.

The quartette will be assisted by little Miss Irene Stone, the child entertainer, whose humorous antics are a delight to audiences wherever she appears on a program.

May Oppose Non-Partisans

BISMARCK, N. D., September 3.—(By the Associated Press)—The status of the Republican electors in North Dakota and the question of whether to place a state ticket in the field to oppose the Republican candidates nominated with non-partisan league backing occupied the attention of the Republican and Democratic state central committees here today.

Although President Coolidge won the Republican endorsement in North Dakota this year, four of the five presidential electors are admitted supporters of Senator Robert M. LaFollette.

Republican leaders planned to bring up today the question of placing five avowed Coolidge men on an independent electoral slate.

LaFollette supporters are also seeking to place electors for their candidate on the North Dakota ballot.

Democrats, Republicans and members of the independent voters' association, formed to oppose the non-partisans, planned to hold a joint meeting to discuss the independent state ticket problem.

Plan Series of Recitals

A series of recitals in the various towns and villages of the county has been planned for this month by the Portsmouth Gospel Quartette, musical organization that has won high praise wherever it has appeared.

The itinerary planned calls for a recital at Rushtown, September 5; at McElmoor, September 6, and Buena Vista, September 7.

The quartette is composed of E. Singer, B. L. Thomas, W. K. Penney and J. Hobbs.

The quartette will be assisted by little Miss Irene Stone, the child entertainer, whose humorous antics are a delight to audiences wherever she appears on a program.

Will Bring Street Fair To Raise Money for Monument

In an effort to raise money with which to purchase a suitable monument to be erected on the new courthouse Peerless Camp No. 70, United American-Spanish War Veterans have engaged the Nutt Relays Show for a week's engagement on the Seventeenth-street lot, starting Monday, September 15. It is estimated that the monument will cost in the neighborhood of $2,700, and the camp hopes to realize handsomely as a result of the show, which will be wholly under its auspices.

M. J. Donahue, advance publicity agent for the company, which is owned by Mrs. Nutt Relays, arrived in the city Monday and conferred with the members of Peerless Camp. Mr. Donahue is a veteran of the late war, being a member of Company A, Third Illinois, which brigaded with Company H, of the Fourth Ohio, and is well known among the members of Company H, of this city. He was the champion short-distance runner of his regiment, and competed in many contests.

The show is said to be one of the highest possible class, free from many of the objectionable features of the ordinary run of street fairs. It has just closed a week's engagement at Xenia, and the Evening Gazette, of that little city, speaks in the highest terms of praise of the entertainment furnished.

It is planned by Peerless Camp to conduct a popularity contest among young women of Portsmouth and New Boston, in the hope of adding to the fund with which to purchase and erect the monument to the memory of Spanish-American War veterans who sacrificed their lives in the brief struggle.

A Fence For Farm Profits

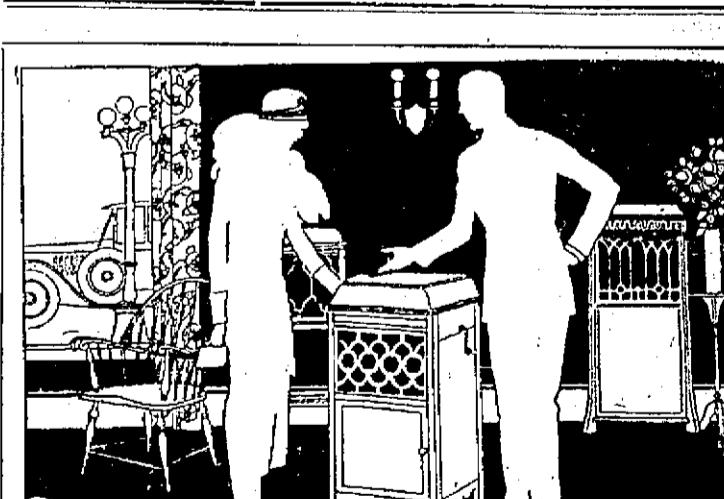

Farmers who operate without system are merely speculating. You know how costly that is.

The business-like farmer puts system into his farming with a Checking Account, which is a money saver. It fences in profits and keeps out guess-work, and shows where, why, and when every dollar comes and goes.

Put system into your farming with a Checking Account at this bank.

All Steel Here For Hotel

Architect C. C. Taylor stated this morning that twenty-five tons of steel for the second floor of the Birth Hotel arrived this morning at the local B. and O. yards from Columbus. As soon as the contractors Taylor and Lynn can get their men on the job the work will be resumed. There will be no more delays on account of steel as all of it is now on hand. The second floor girders were all that were necessary to go on with the construction. The steel work, Mr. Taylor stated, should not take much longer than five weeks.

Officers Bard and Templeman arrested a man and woman this afternoon at 912 Twelfth street who gave their names as Osie Kountz, 43, and Jacob Seely, 42. They are being held in the city prison on charges of disorderly conduct and will be arraigned in Municipal Court Thursday afternoon.

Tilden Retains Tennis Championship Crown

FOREST HILL, N. Y., Sept. 3.—(By Tex A. P.)—William T. Tilden is still the King of American tennis. The Philadelphia recipient wanted remained any doubt on the score when he swept to victory yesterday over his veteran California rival William M. Johnson and won the National Singles championship for the fifth successive year. It took Tilden 85 minutes to batter his gallant but bediz beaten little opponent into submission by scores of 6-1, 9-7, 6-2, and established not only his pre-eminent position among the American tennis stars, but recognition also as the world's champion for he emerged triumphant from one of the greatest international fields ever gathered together.

In 1921, the California man was put out in the fourth round by Tilden, who, having disposed of his greatest rival, went on to win the title easily, defeating Wallace Johnson in the final. Last season Tilden was victorious in straight sets.

Today Tilden was the master, rising to super tennis of the type of which only he can exhibit to gain a triumph stamping him beyond the last lingering doubt as the world's greatest; one of the most dominating figures any branch of sport has ever known.

When he chose to unleash the full battery of his dazzling strokes Tilden held Johnson helpless. The withering fire that had blasted Patterson off the courts Monday had no terrors for the champion. They had many brilliant duels at the net and from back court but invariably ended with a streaking cross court placement or a passing shot down the center by the champion. Under this deadly fire, this relentless attack, Johnson wilted.

LIKE ANTS IN A HILL

WOULD you believe it, asks the Huntington Advertiser, New York has a denser population in a certain area than in any other community in the world, excepting China or India? We assume, in some parts of China, and in some parts of India, people are forced to sleep in tiers. We suppose, to hear her tell of it, that the people of Japan sleep standing up.

But, according to Senator Copeland, they are not half so crowded in any of these countries, as they are in certain districts of Gotham. He says:

"In my city of New York is a square mile in which live 500,000 persons. Just think of it—a half million in one mile. Nowhere else on earth, not in China, nor in India, is there anything like it. I can take you to thousands of homes where 12 persons live in three rooms, where four sleep in the kitchen every night. In hundreds of these so-called homes, they live in inside rooms without outside air or light."

And just think of the vast open spaces in the country! Why do people live in kitchens and dark and unventilated rooms? There are two thousand different lines of work in the United States. It would seem that an individual, with even less than the average intelligence, would move from such unhappy conditions. The country offers them something different. There is better opportunity anywhere almost, than where they exist. The sun and the moon would guide them. May be they need Uncle Sam to prod them a little bit for their own good and his.

NEVER CAN CATCH UP

STATES, cities and officers are busy these days prescribing regulations for the operation of the automobile, but they ever seem more than one lap behind in catching step with the fresh perils the car constantly offers.

Of late it has become much the fashion to decorate wind-shields with flaming lithographs of females in bathing costumes and glaring cuts of candidates—it is marvelous how quickly such practices spread from one end of the country to the other.

The Massachusetts director of highways has banned all such displays. He holds they obstruct the view of the driver, either at front or rear and therefore add to the dangers of traffic.

They do. Perhaps not a great deal, but when it is borne in mind that the horde of drivers are none too careful, at the most, anything that distracts or impedes their vision at all, becomes an added menace by just that much.

THE SUNDAY SLAUGHTER

CARELESSNESS claimed its usual toll, Sunday last, and on that day ten persons alone were killed in Ohio, through automobile accidents.

What happened in Ohio happened in every other state, proportionately.

The slaughter was ghastly.

Just think of the horror and the sorrow it brought into hundreds of homes.

Yet, it might have all been avoided by a mere bit of discretion. Certainly, there was no reason why four persons should have been run down and killed at a railroad crossing. A moment's precaution, a mere glance, would have saved four lives. But neither was taken. Heedlessly, when there was absolutely no need for hurry, the car rushed on and the engine, disdaining any contention as to its right to the track, crushed and slew.

It is that way every Sunday.

Ten, twenty thousand persons are killed yearly in automobile accidents.

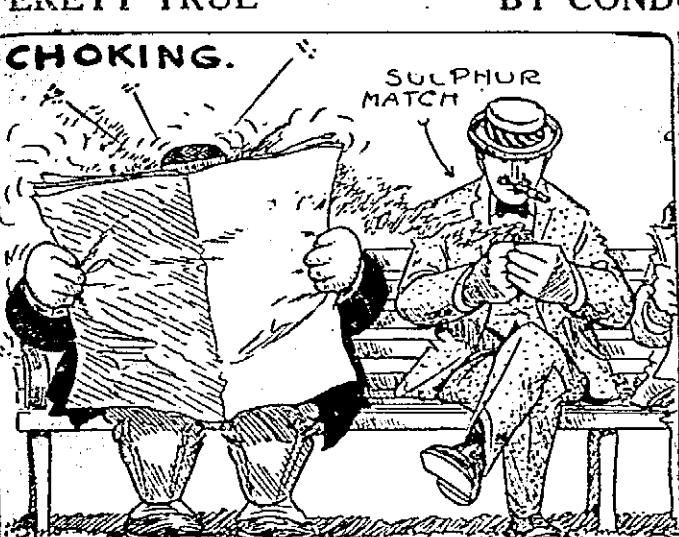

And all for the one reason, lack of prudence, an insane impulse to go ahead, to pass the other fellow, or beat his time.

Sunday, we stood by a newly graded pile that was heavy with dirt and displaced gravel making it treacherous even at moderate speed. A Ford came tearing down the hill like his Satanic majesty beating tambark. A young man exclaimed: "That fellow is riding for a spill." Prophetic words. The car charged and chattered down a short hill. It struck the loose gravel, wiggled and wobbled, turned its prow to the direction the stern had been pointed and then flopped over. Not an occupant received a scratch. But "they were just lucky."

The peril was evident, but why pay any attention to it!

A CREDIT TO THE CITY

THREE is one shining mark in the city to which no envious glances will be directed, the new home, on Chillicothe street, occupied, Tuesday, by the Citizens' Savings and Loan Association.

It is a domicile in which not only the Citizens itself, but every inhabitant can take a just pride. It is a long step forward and decidedly the most artistic and beautiful achievement in local architecture. Of a truth, it is a decided innovation in construction and is as handsomely turned as can be found anywhere in the way of business building. It is emphatically metropolitan in its design and arrangement.

The Citizens has for many years played a conspicuous and worthy part in the up-building of the community. There can be no doubt that its new quarters will have an effective part in broadening and continuing its operations for all time.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY C. O. MCINTIRE

ON THE ATLANTIC, Sept. 3.—The ingenuity of passengers was shown last night at the costume ball. It was a colorful pageant when one considers no one came aboard prepared for the event. Costumes were fashioned from odds and ends.

A Scottish Highlander in kilts and bare knees led the grand march with a Southern "Mammy." There were impersonations of Rudolph Valentino, Al Jolson, a Spanish torero, Madam Butterfly, Chinese mandarin, a mining camp gambler and a rube.

The captain of the ship seemed to have a bad run of luck tripping the well known fantastic. Out of six starts he was unable to dance with only one partner, but he gamely carried on. A few old-fashioned square dances served to get the crowd together.

In an unguarded moment a lady with a sense of humor lured me into the swirl of a tango. On a dance floor that hasn't an ocean room it would be terrible. But I tried and for my daring suffered the only humiliation of the evening.

On a certain note we were supposed to dip and twirl. I think the flute player got his lip caught in the flute for it seemed to me there was a sour note followed by two more that completely clattered. Any way I fell down flat and I might as well blame the flute player.

Outside of two ladies on the sides-lines deranging me I escaped serious derangement. From now on I stick to deck walking and leave tangos to the longhairs. After all, the ship captain is a poor dancer, too. And he has more initials after his name than a painless dentist.

It was heartening to see the number of grey-haired couples in evening clothes enjoying themselves. They remained for "lights out." I waltzed with one lady from Chicago.
